

SPENT A QUIET, RESTFUL NIGHT

It Will Be at Least Two Weeks Before McKinley Can Be Moved.

NO SIGN OF POISON

Analysis of Blood is Followed by Verdict That All Seems Well.

HEARS LORD'S PRAYER

Buffalo, Sept. 12.—How long it will be before the president recovers sufficiently to leave the Milburn residence is a question about which the physicians say little. It will be a matter of at least two weeks according to the commonly expressed opinion or it may be a month or more. Visitors are still excluded from the sick room and despite the patient's increasing strength may be kept from the president's room for some time.

Had a Restful Night. At 9:30 o'clock the following official bulletin was issued: "The president spent a quiet and restful night and has taken much nourishment. He feels better this morning than at any time since the shooting. He has taken a little solid food this morning and relished it. Pulse, 120; temperature, 100.2."

A drop of the president's blood has been examined and shows no trace of blood poisoning. He is taking an increased quantity of nourishment and relishes it. The "blood count," as the test is technically termed in the bulletin, means microscopic count of the red and white corpuscles. Preponderance of white corpuscles would be a sign of trouble. There was no such sign in the president's blood.

The president is able to move easily and considerably without assistance. Instead of being confined flat on his back, he lies on either side at will—proof positive that his internal wounds are practically healed and in no danger of injury by the slight displacement which takes place in change from the back to side position. The second bullet in the president is not making any trouble. Temperature, pulse and respiration, as shown by successive bulletins all day, are good. Nourishment has been administered through mouth and stomach every half hour during the day. The president's own spirits have so risen that he cracks an occasional joke with those around him.

Says the Lord's Prayer. One of the surgeons who assisted at the operation in the Pan-American hospital last Friday told today a beautiful story of the way the president approached the period of unconsciousness under the knife, which he knew might never have an awakening.

"There was no outward show of pitey, no assumption of fitness," said the doctor, "but when we had administered the ether to President McKinley as a preliminary to the first operation, and just as he was sinking into unconsciousness, we saw his lips move. Bending over, that we might catch what might be his last words, we heard faintly, but distinctly, a portion of the Lord's Prayer. "Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done," were the last words of President McKinley as he passed into unconsciousness."

Nome Postmaster Arrested. Washington, Sept. 12.—Joseph H. Wright, postmaster at Nome, Alaska, has been placed under arrest on the charge of embezzling $4,000.

NO ONE CLAIMS THE BABY TRAVELER

Infant Tagged to Darlington, Wis., is Still at the Police Station in Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Rose Reeber, the six-year old girl who arrived in Chicago from Holland on Monday last is still at the Harrison street police station awaiting instructions and money from her father, G. Reeber of Darlington, Wisconsin. A telegram was sent him on Tuesday but no response has been received. The child is said to have been brought to New York by her mother, but because of illness the mother was refused a landing and returned to Chicago, bearing a tag addressed to G. Reeber, Darlington, Lafayette county, Wisconsin. On Monday the child was presented to the Deering station by Mrs. August Gunson, 2810 Hillock avenue of this city, who is said to have accompanied her from New York to Chicago.

Three Negroes Hanged

Carlo, Ill., September 12.—The three negroes who last Saturday murdered Wash Thomas were taken from jail here last night by a mob composed of negroes. The three prisoners were taken to Wickliffe, Ky., and hanged.

BEEES KILL A HORSE

Enter Mouth of a La Crosse Animal and Inflict Injuries That Prove Fatal.

LaCrosse, Wis., Sept. 12.—Yesterday afternoon while A. Jacobs, a farmer residing on St. Joseph's ridge was at work furring a patch of turnips, a swarm of bees flew over the heads of his horses. At the same instant one of the animals opened its mouth and the queen bee entered it in her flight. The working bees swarmed about and when, in great agony the animal reopened its mouth, the entire swarm darted in after their queen. The frenzied animal galloped madly about the field until it fell to the ground exhausted. It died a few hours afterward.

GREAT REBELLION ON IN TURKEY

Fifty Thousand Are Under Arms in the Provinces of El Hojase and Aziz.

Vienna, Sept. 12.—Die Information (newspaper) says the Turkish provinces of El Hojase and Aziz, aided by independent Arabs, have revolted against Turkish authority and fifty thousand are under arms. Forty thousand Turkish troops are trying to subdue them and reinforcements are asked for.

BADGER FLAGS FOR GRANT MONUMENT

Madison, Wis., Sept. 12.—(Special)—The battleflags of the Twelfth and Sixteenth Wisconsin regiments in the civil war were today designated by Governor La Follette to be loaned to the Grant Monument association, to be placed above General Grant's tomb at Riverside Park, under the act passed by the legislature.

Eight Boys Held for Murder

Denver, Sept. 12.—Some weeks ago Homer Reahard, an 11-year-old boy, was found dead near his home in West Denver with a bullet in his brain. He was thought to have been accidentally shot by a hunter, but the police now believe it was a case of murder, and eight boys have been arrested on suspicion. They are: Sam and Casey Gaul, 14 and 12 years old; Chester John, 14; Ray Pool, 14; Henry, Charles and Roy Brune, brothers, 13, 14 and 12 years, and their cousin, George W. Brune, 14.

CROP REPORT OF ROCK COUNTY; YIELD 40 PER CENT LESS THAN 1900

Johnstown Leads in Wheat, Union in Oats, La Prairie in Barley, and Turtle in Rye—Acres in Crops, 274,238—Bushels Harvested, 5,474,475.

County Clerk F. P. Starr has just completed his annual crop report for the secretary of state, as compiled from the crop reports of the assessors of the different towns.

The report gives the number of acres of crops planted in 1901, the number of bushels of grain harvested in 1900, the number of tons of tobacco, the number of pounds of butter and cheese and their value, the number of milk cows and their value, the number of acres of apple orchards and the number of bearing trees. The report is very exhaustive and gives a complete report of the crop conditions in each town.

The total number of acres of all kinds of crops in the county planted this year was 274,238. The number of acres planted to each species of crop was as follows:

Wheat, 729; corn, 87,344; oats, 50,712; barley, 21,533; rye, 7,084; potatoes, 2,540; tobacco, 8,248; cultivated grasses, 63,640; growing timber, 31,236; milk cows, 28,749, of the value of $702,905; root crops, 162 1-3; apple orchards, 1,068 1-2, bearing trees, 26,682; strawberries, 36 1-2; raspberries, 37 1-2; blackberries, 6 1-2; currants, 6 1-2; grapes, 2-3.

Johnstown is first in wheat acreage with 139 acres. Union leads in corn with 6,110. Center in oats, 3,485. Bradford with barley, 4,936; Turtle in rye, 1230. Clinton with potatoes, 277. Harmony, root crops, 6. Clinton, apple orchards, 205, bearing trees, 4,112. Strawberries, Milton, 6. Raspberries, Newark, 1. Currants,

GIRL ASKS HARPER TO ESCORT HER

Prospective Student Wants Chicago University President to Meet Her at the Train.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—President Harper of the university of Chicago is receiving many letters from prospective students who seem to imagine that he is the whole clerical force of the Midway school, but it remained for a young woman of Pecatonica, Ill., to seize on him as her escort from the depot when she reaches the city. The girl is inquisitive even to the admission that she is good looking. Here is her letter minus the signature:

"Dear Dr. Harper: I know you will be pleased to learn that I have decided to attend the university school of education this fall. I am going to Chicago next Saturday on the morning train, and as I have never been in the city before I would be glad if you would meet me at the depot.

"I am 5 feet 4 inches tall, have light hair and eyes and a pleasing appearance. I shall wear a dark brown traveling skirt and a blue waist with a white yoke. I think I shall know you from your pictures, but for fear I make a mistake will you please wear your card in your hat."

It was said at the university that some one—not President Harper—would be sent to the train.

EXPRESS TRAIN JUMPS THE TRACK

Syracuse, N. Y., September 12.—The west bound express on the West Shore railroad jumped the track at Eastwood this morning. The engine and five cars were tipped over and wrecked. Fifty persons were more or less injured, but only four seriously.

Miss Sarah Hostetter, who has charge of the cooking department of the high school has returned from her vacation.

CHICAGO HUNTERS HEAVILY FINED

Two Sportsmen Who Ignore the Badger State License Law, Come to Quick Grief.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 12.—(Special)—Information came to State Game Warden Overbeck the other day, through a letter signed "A Hunter," that a party of Chicago men camped near Eagle river in Vilas county, were shooting game birds without a license. Instructions were sent Deputy Warden Jas. Oberholzer to get after them, and he arrested two of the party, named Green and Darcourt, each of whom paid a fine of $50 and costs. Both also had their new Winchester guns taken away from them. A third member of the party, a doctor, had gone home to Chicago, and the fourth had procured a license before the deputy arrived.

Special instructions have been sent the deputy game wardens throughout the state to get after non-resident hunters who are not provided with licenses, costing $10 each.

Eighty small game licenses, and seven $25 or deer licenses, have been issued to non-residents thus far this year. This exceeds the number issued up to the same time last year by 26.

BALTIMORE CLUB FIRES WELLINGTON

Adopts Resolutions Denouncing the Senator and Cutting His Name from Membership Roll.

Baltimore, Md., September 12.—The board of governors of the Union League club last night expelled United States Senator Wellington from membership. The action subsequently was ratified unanimously in a mass-meeting of the members of the club by a rising vote.

Among those urging the resolution and denouncing Senator Wellington were several members of the legislature that sent Wellington to the senate. The resolutions, after referring to the attempt on the president's life say:

"Whereas, The people of Maryland have learned with shame and loathing that George L. Wellington, a representative of this state, in the senate of the United States, has countenanced the act of this traitor to his country and enemy to mankind by repeated and public expressions of indifference to the act or its results; and whereas said George L. Wellington, is a member of this organization; therefore, be it

"Resolved, By the Board of Governors of the Union League club, That we consider the conduct of George L. Wellington demonstrates his unfitness to associate with loyal citizens or right-hearted men.

"Resolved, That George L. Wellington be and he is hereby expelled from membership in the Union League club of Maryland and that his name be stricken from the roster."

REPORT GEN. BOTHA HAS SURRENDERED

New York, Sept. 12.—A London dispatch says the report is current that Botha, the Boer commander in chief, has surrendered.

No confirmation of the report that Botha has surrendered is obtainable in official quarters here.

Died, at Willowdale, this morning, at 7 o'clock, Mrs. Hutton, wife of George W. Hutton. The funeral will be held from the house Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, and the interment will be at the Grove cemetery. She leaves besides a husband three children to mourn her loss: Elsie, Eva and Verna.

STATE AUTHORITIES WILL TRY THE ASSASSIN OF PRESIDENT MCKINLEY

Such Announcement is Made by Secretary Root—Miss Goldman Will Be Kept in Chicago.

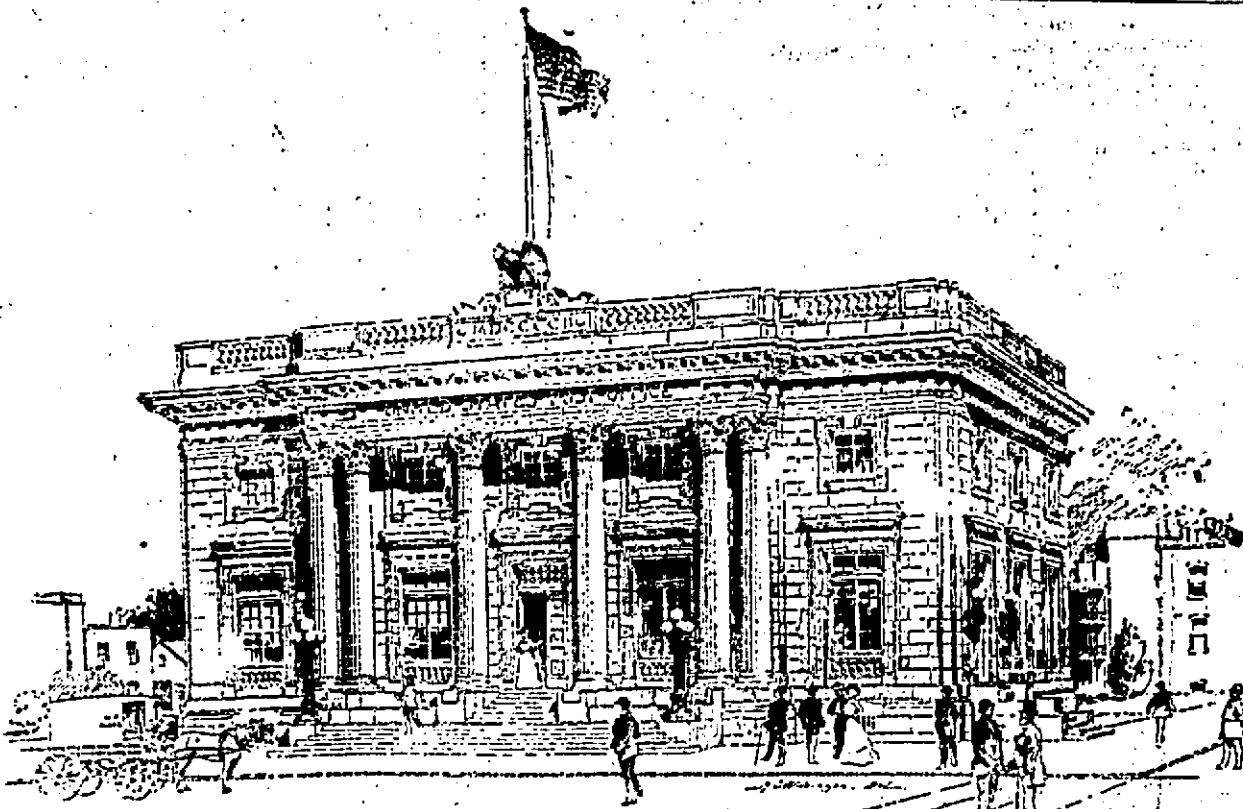

Buffalo, September 12.—Secretary of War Root said this morning that the state authorities will unquestionably try Czolgosz. He refused to say whether or not Miss Goldman will be brought at once from Chicago. Extradition papers were not prepared by the district attorney and that official does not know when they will be. He also refuses to say whether there is sufficient evidence to connect Miss Goldman with the crime.

MASONS IN A WORLD WIDE MOVEMENT FOR THE SUPPRESSION OF ANARCHY

Columbus, O., Sept. 12.—The Masons of Columbus have taken the initiative in a world-wide movement for the suppression of anarchy. Lincoln Goodale Lodge has adopted resolutions expressing sympathy with the president, denouncing his assailant and the anarchists who prompted the attempted assassination, and calling upon the Masonic fraternity throughout the world to hunt down the followers of the red flag and banish them from all civilized countries. This is an extremely unusual action upon the part of the Masons, whose organization is counted the most conservative and self contained in existence. It is very rare that any public question or calamity calls forth official expression. The resolution, copies of which will be distributed broadcast, is as follows:

"Resolved, That we appeal to our Masonic brothers in all quarters of the globe to constitute themselves as individual watchmen and hunters to detect and aid the guardians of law in arresting, punishing and banishing from their countries every vestige of anarchy. And for this purpose we look to the Grand Master of the Universe for help and guidance."

BRITTON WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the wedding of Col. and Mrs. W. B. Britton last evening was one of the happiest social events ever enjoyed by the people of this city. A golden wedding is a rare event, one that comes to comparatively few of the travelers on life's uncertain journey and so it is especially gracious to those who reach the golden milestone to share their pleasure with their friends.

The Hotel Myers, where Col. and Mrs. Britton entertained has been the scene of many pleasurable events but all were surpassed by the golden wedding reception of last evening. The pouring rain kept many of those who had anticipated the pleasure of attending, at home, but in spite of the inclement weather about one hundred and fifty guests were present to extend congratulations and enjoy the hospitality of the bride and groom.

The guests repaired to the hotel parlor where they exchanged greetings with the receiving line. The host and hostess stood first in line and with them stood Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Lane, Misses Irene and Ella Lane, Mr. Britton Lane and Masters Maurice and Hamilton Lane, of Evansville, Ill. Mrs. Lane is the only child of Col. and Mrs. Britton and the receiving line contained the entire family of the host and hostess.

It was a pleasant thought that included the three generations in the receiving party, and the guests were delighted. The line from the gray-haired grandfather to the youngest grandson made an impressive picture never to be forgotten by those who witnessed it.

The bride of fifty years wore a handsome gown of bluish gray silk with rich white lace and black velvet ribbon trimmings. A magnificent addition to her costume was a diamond brooch in the shape of a crescent. Col. Britton's gift to his wife. She also carried a huge bouquet of bride's roses. Mrs. Lane and her daughter were richly and becomingly attired in black silk and Miss Ella Lane's brilliant beauty was enhanced by an exquisite costume of white.

After the cordial greetings were over, the guests wrote their names in an excellent guest book, which was the gift of Mrs. J. W. Sale. This book will be a souvenir of priceless value to Col. and Mrs. Britton and also to their descendants.

After the guests had all assembled they were ushered into the dining room where a dainty wedding luncheon was served at prettily spread tables. The bridal table occupied the center of the room and was especially beautiful, the entire center of the table being filled with a bank of pink roses and foliage. At this table were seated Col. Britton and his family, Judge and Mrs. J. W. Sale and Master W. B. Tallman. The luncheon was faultlessly served by the efficient dining room force of the hotel, under the personal supervision of Landlord E. C. Johnson. A pink carnation lay at each plate and during the supper hour and the reception hour which preceded it, Smith's orchestra of six pieces played entrancing music.

Before the guests left the tables, W. S. Jeffris claimed the attention of the company and fulfilled the task for which he had been chosen in a very happy manner. The present occasion was happier because Col. and Mrs. Britton had passed the greater part of their married life in Janesville. Mr. Jeffris said, that on behalf of the friends assembled and the wider circle of friends who were not able to be present, he wished to extend the heartiest of congratulations and incidentally to present both host and hostess with the gifts which had been selected to represent the kind wishes and the affection of many friends.

He then presented Col. Britton with an elegant ebony cane with a heavy gold top, on which is inscribed "Col. W. B. Britton, Janesville, Wis., Sept. 11, 1851-1901," and with a gold watch chain. The gift presented to Mrs. Britton was a costly gold watch, bearing her name and the dates on the inner case.

Col. Britton was visibly overcome and taking the cane in his hand said that the people could very well see that he needed something of the kind, something that he could depend on. He was surprised and pleased almost beyond words but he should keep and treasure the gift as long as he lived, and assured the donors, who ever they might be, that nothing had ever come into his life which had given him more pleasure.

Judge J. W. Sale spoke in behalf of Mrs. Britton and expressed her thanks very happily. He then said that it had pleased Col. and Mrs. Britton to have their friends with them on this happy occasion and it was a matter of regret that many who wished to be present had been necessarily detained. Among the many interesting letters of regrets, a few had been selected that would be of special interest to the assembled guests. Judge Sale then read delightfully written letters from Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones, of Chicago, Judge J. B. Cassaday, of Madison, Judge Wm. Lyon, of Madison, and Rev. Jesse Cole, chaplain of the soldiers' home at Marshalltown, Iowa.

While the tables were being cleared away, the guests spent the time in the parlors which were elaborately decorated with choice cut flowers. Col. E. O. Kimberly sang "We Were Comrades Together" and "Wisconsin" very feelingly. Mrs. J. F. Sweeney playing his accompaniments.

The balance of the evening was spent in dancing and social conversation. Punch was served in the hall and the festivities lasted until about midnight.

On the table where the wedding gifts were displayed was a remnant of the bridal dress of fifty years ago, a handsome flowered silk, and daguerreotypes of the bride and groom at that time. These were looked at with a great deal of interest. Amusement was also afforded by a miniature wedding cake, elaborately frosted and bearing the dates 1851-1901 in gift with a love knot between. This was the gift of George M. McKee. Among the handsome gifts which the happy pair received besides the diamond brooch, the watch, the chain and the cane already mentioned were a gold watch chain for Col. Britton, a gift from his wife, an elegant gold locket for Mrs. Britton, from Mr. and Mrs. Lane; a heavy gold monogram ring for Col. Britton from his grand-children; a gold thimble for Mrs. Britton from her grand-son, Britton Lane; valuable gold coin from Mrs. Fenner Kimball; gold candlestick from Mrs. Edgar D. Tallman; gold salad spoon from Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. James Waddle, Miss Tilda Parker and Mrs. Etheridge; gold spoon from Mrs. John Crowley; cut flowers and wedding cake from George McKee; gold fruit spoon from Dr. and Mrs. George Pratt, of Chicago; guest book from Judge and Mrs. J. W. Sale; and one hundred bottles of White Rock water from Colonel Fred Bray of Chicago. This last refreshing gift was shared with the guests last evening.

Among the guests from out of the city were Mrs. A. G. Welsert and Miss Florentine Welsert of Milwaukee; Mrs. Grant Colvin, of Hastings, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Lane and children of Evanston, Ill.

concerning them that their whereabouts were unknown. Among the arrivals yesterday was a man by the name of Frier from the northern part of the state, accompanied by the sheriff of his county. Frier was expelled from the school four years ago as incorrigible. He took advantage of the new administration to regain admission, but was very wisely refused. The intimation that other young men would fail to gain admission on account of drunkenness, is false. Professor Hutton, the new superintendent, is taking hold of the work with enthusiasm. He is surrounded with all of the old corps of teachers who are thoroughly familiar with the work.

Taken to Mendota.

Mrs. Carrie Hanson, an insane woman, was taken to Mendota yesterday noon by Sheriff Maltress. She lived in the town of Fulton, and on Tuesday walked from her home to this city. She went before Judge Fiffeld and demanded a warrant for her husband's arrest. A little questioning on the part of the judge developed the fact that her husband had some doctors out to their house to examine her to see if she was sane. Judge Sale had her examined, and she was declared insane. A commitment to the state hospital was issued, and the sheriff took her up yesterday noon. She is not considered incurable.

Trinity Parish Meeting.

The reports at the parish meeting of Trinity church were most encouraging. Gifts in chancel pervature, etc., amounted to $30. Small improvements toward the completion of the appointments of the Guild hall which was built the year previous, to the extent of about $170. While the prosperity of the parish was shown in the report of receipts for the year, which amounted to $2,000, lacking a few cents, and in the fact that the rector's salary had been increased during the year. The increase in membership of Trinity church has been healthy and the parish now stands on a level in this respect with St. John's church, Milwaukee, and Grace church, Madison. Aside from the vestry its working guilds and societies number six.

He Owes His Life to the Forethought of a Companion.

While on a camping trip in Webster county, Mr. S. I. Stump, of Normantown, Va. Va., had a severe attack of bloody flux. He says, "I firmly believe that I owe my life to the forethought of one of the company who had taken along a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." Moral—Procure a bottle of this remedy before leaving home. It cannot be obtained when on a hunting, fishing or prospecting trip. Neither can it be obtained while on board the cars or steamship, and at such times and places it is most likely to be needed. The safe way is to have it with you. Thousands of travelers never leave home on a journey without it. For sale by People's Drug Co., and King's pharmacy.

PROGRESS OF FARMERS' PHONE

It is to the farmer, perhaps, that the telephone means more than to anybody else. Isolated socially and cut off from the ordinary avenues of news, the telephone practically reverses his former condition. This appears to be generally appreciated now, as in some parts of the middle west, as well as in the ranch territory of the far west, co-operative farmers' telephones are springing up like a mushroom growth. According to the Electrical Review, the majority of these exchanges are built by the individual farmers, each paying a proportionate rental for the use of the village exchange. This in turn, is usually connected with the county seat, and through the latter exchange with the long distance toll lines of the state. An example of such a company is that organized a year ago at Bowers' Station, Montgomery county, Indiana. This has now increased so that forty townships are connected and over 6,000 telephones are in use.

Prices are so adjusted that the company makes no profit, the present rate being that each subscriber pays $3 initiation fee and a monthly fee of 25 cents, in addition to keeping his own line in repair. Owing to a general growth of this character, there are now said to be in the state of Indiana 52,469 telephones connected, operated from exchanges independent of the Bell interests, who have an additional 22,000 instruments. The farmer gets a great deal of social entertainment from his telephone through conversation and discussion with his neighbors; he gets in touch with the market reports and with the latest weather prognostications, besides saving himself many fruitless journeys for supplies and for the disposition of his produce.

PARTING WORDS OF CORA MAY WELPTON

Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Congregational Church Held Yesterday.

The meeting of the Woman's Missionary societies of the Congregational church in honor of Miss Cora May Welpton, of Ladysmith, who sails next Wednesday for Marash college, Turkey, was not the large affair which had been anticipated. Miss Welpton is to go out as a Wisconsin Missionary and is to be supported by the Wisconsin branch. The state officers were here to bid her farewell and it had been expected that a large number of ladies would gather at the church parlors in honor of the occasion. Just at the hour at which the meeting was called, however, the rain was coming down its hardest and as the storm continued without a break all the afternoon the meeting was comparatively small. As a consequence it became informal in its nature and was all the more enjoyable to those who were present.

Mrs. Q. O. Sutherland, the president of the local society presided and the meeting opened with singing, responsive reading and a fervent prayer by Miss Anna B. Sewell, of Stoughton, state secretary.

Miss Welpton then gave an informal talk on the work which she expects to do. She is a petite woman with a sweet face, an earnest manner and a pleasing voice.

Miss Lucy Walker, of Milton, state president, spoke briefly of the pleasure which it gave the missionary workers to meet Miss Welpton personally and thought that it would greatly quicken missionary interest. It was no more her work to go than it was the work of the people at home to send her. One of the pleasant things about missionary work is that everyone can have a hand in it.

Miss Sewell spoke very briefly of the work of Marash college and said that the young women ought to be especially interested in it because the first work they ever did was to raise money to found the college and out of that work grew the young women's missionary societies.

Miss Welpton answered a number of questions, a short business session of the society was held, and then a pleasant social hour followed, tea and wafers being served. Miss Welpton was accompanied by her mother and left for Chicago last evening.

ALL PURE

The proper place to purchase pure liquors is from the man who makes a specialty of them. You buy your coal from the coal dealer, because you know that he knows all about coal. The same reasoning should apply to your whiskey, wine, beer, etc. Impure liquor for family or medicinal purposes is worse than none at all.

We wholesale and retail every kind of good liquor.

Graphic Portrayal of the Shooting

In the above thrilling picture our artist has depicted the awful scene which has turned the eyes of the whole world towards the City of Buffalo. It will be noticed in the above picture that the hand of the President is extended to grasp that of the man who so cruelly shot him down.

The above picture shows the diabolical cunning brought into play by the wretch Czolgosz in the perpetration of his fell deed. The handkerchief bound around the supposedly wounded hand entirely hid from view the deadly weapon beneath.

GREAT DEMAND FOR WISCONSIN LUMBER

Colonel Knight spoke encouragingly of the prospects for Northern Wisconsin to a Milwaukee Sentinel reporter recently. He said:

"The lumber business is especially flourishing in the Ashland district. That Ashland is a good lumber market is shown by the fact that our cut last year aggregated 250,000,000 feet. At present the demand is apparently greater than the supply, yet lumbermen have deemed it wise to hold prices on a fair basis, being satisfied with the prices that have prevailed. No particular attention has been given to the manufacture and sale of hemlock in our section. There are large tracts of hemlock, excellent in quality. The development of the hemlock industry is usually preceded by the establishment of tan-beries, which use the bark, and thereby increase the price of stumpage. As our market is chiefly in the east on lake ports, we come in competition with Michigan and Pennsylvania hemlock, and besides cannot get the same prices as are paid to the Mississippi mills.

"This is owing to the fact that they have already established their market and have a use for the bark. The time is close at hand the bark will be worth as much or more than was paid for white pine stumpage ten years ago. The supply in Pennsylvania is becoming limited, and when we start to develop this industry it will give a long lease of life to the lumber business of our section.

"While some have anticipated troubles in the iron mines on account of the labor troubles in the east, so far everything is running nicely and the iron industry is in a prosperous condition. New mines are being constantly developed on the Gogebic range. We produce the most desirable iron ore in the United States.

The above half-tone is from a photograph of the residence of John G. Millburn, President of the Pan-American Exposition. It was at this house that President McKinley was staying during his visit to Buffalo, and here the wounded man was taken as soon as it was possible to remove him from the hospital, his first resting place.

While it is no better than some of the Vermillion range or Michigan ore, it is more easily smelted and is extensively used in connection with other ores.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Generally fair tonight and Friday.

A FORECAST.

The disaffection cropping out among the leaders of the great steel strike seems to predict defeat for the strikers.

The trust seems to be immovable in its stand, while the strikers are wavering, casting about for a dark means of escape from their present position without undergoing the humiliation of a confessed defeat. Mill after mill is being started with non-union men, and as we predicted, the war will result in practical defeat for those who can ill-afford the loss in wages during enforced idleness, no matter how just their demands have been.

The practical question to every man who has to work for a living is not what ought to be, but what is. The trust can live and eat three meals a day without the support of the laboring man during a strike, but labor cannot exist without his wages and so the contest is always an unequal one.

The Amalgamated Association was in no condition to begin a serious strike, nor had it the right to pose as the representative of union labor. With a membership of some 15,000 it talked of boundless resources and some 50,000 members.

President Shaffer is personally to blame for much of the failure of the strike, his mind is full of misconceptions, and his stand against contracts is untenable by self-respecting labor.

The leaders of the strike have counted among their assets the popular antipathy to trusts and public opinion is so strong against the strike that this asset has become a liability.

The public cannot approve of a causeless strike, and the value of steel shares has not taken a toboggan slide as was expected.

Under these circumstances the strike was lost from the beginning.

RISKING LIFE FOR OTHERS.

Two Spaniards in Havana, have died as the result of offering themselves as test cases in the interest of medical research. Infected mosquitoes were allowed to bite a number of men with the purpose of deciding the question of immunity from inoculation. Most of the men suffered light attacks of yellow fever, but the two Spaniards died as the result of the experiment.

The attending physicians have been severely criticised for their conduct, and yet we cannot see that the criticism is just. If a man goes into such a dangerous experiment, having made no provision for a family, or in a spirit of bravado, then he should be restrained because of the suffering his death would bring on others, but if he is single or has gone into the risk with a full understanding of the possible termination, we do not see how his generous motives differ from those of a soldier who offers himself in his country's need.

Both realize the result of the enemy's bullets and yet for the sake of humanity are willing to sacrifice themselves if necessary.

Such generosity should be applauded and the resulting good appreciated as the legacy of heroes.

ANNEXATION OF MEXICO.

For some time Americans have been investigating the resources of Mexico, and as a result, are investing large sums of money in her mines and railroads.

It is strange that Mexico has not of Mexico can be found all the rich ores commercially valuable to our vast manufacturers and with labor much less expensive and good transportation facilities, these products can be brought to our doors much less expensively than they can be mined on our own soil.

It is strange that Mexico has not been Americanized before; her soil rich in mineral wealth and her political institutions much like our own, and the population of 13,000,000 increasing in intelligence every year.

We are spending a vast amount of money on our own island possessions in the hope of developing their industries, while at our very door is a country larger and richer, tolerably secure in peace, simply waiting for our enterprise, energy and money to place her on a dividend paying basis. It is gratifying to note the disposition to make up for lost time, as the more money we invest in Mexico, the closer will the two republics be drawn together in sympathies which amount to practical annexation.

NOT A RACE QUESTION.

In expressing separately and as a class their abhorrence of the assassin Czolgosz our Polish-American fellow citizens are perhaps displaying a certain supersensitiveness. They apparently feel that this man's crime reflects in some way upon them as a class. Such, of course, is not the case. Czolgosz is not a Pole. He is an American citizen, born, bred and educated in this country. His Polish name and extraction have nothing whatever to do with the crime, or with the motives which impelled him to it. The apparent notion, therefore, of Polish-Americans that it is incumbent on them to show in some special and instinctive way their abhorrence of Czolgosz and his deed, while creditable to them as a sentiment, is not founded in reason. Responsibility for Czolgosz' crime is a question not of race but of doctrine. Anarchism knows no country, no fatherland. It is a cancer eating into the breast of society at large. —Milwaukee Sentinel.

Emma Goldman is attracting a good deal of attention just now. Emma should be invited to locate in some other country. America has no use for the class of citizens she represents.

The state fair finds the equinoctial a hard proposition. The management should have a better understanding with the weather bureau.

The top dressing on the new side hill streets can now be carted back up the hill to blow away when the sun comes out.

Jane Addams, of Hull House fame has made herself notorious by expressing a lot of sentimental twaddle about anarchy.

The girl that went through the Niagara rapids in a barrel, took a trip to the cemetery in a hearse the next day.

PRESS COMMENT.

Council Bluffs Nonpareil: From the variety of pictures of the assassin now being printed it seems that publishers are working off all sorts of old cuts on the public.

Racine Journal: Two thousand Chicago socialists on Sunday voted down an expression of sympathy for the president, thereby endorsing the attempted crime. Socialism, therefore, represents anarchy as well.

Watertown Daily Times: Carrie Nation in a speech yesterday said she was glad McKinley was shot. That is about her calibre anyhow. Now it is in line for some of her former admirers at least to stand aghast at her words.

Milwaukee Journal: It seems unnatural for the state fair to open without a speech. If we could not have Gov. La Follette, why should we have had Lieut. Gov. Stone? Or there was Private Secretary Murphy; from his description of Senator Whitehead, it is certain he could talk entertainingly. Nevertheless it is a great fair, and the man who misses it will have much to regret. Ho! for the fair!

Eau Claire Daily Telegram: Janesville's new federal building, for which plans are now ready, will be a notable structure, though $75,000 covers building and site. The architecture is to be a novel combination of the classical and the renaissance—six big pillars in front, terrace around the top and twenty panes of glass in each window. There is some suggestion of the colonial in it, too, but it is difficult to say just where. It is to be hoped buildings like it will be out of style by the time the Eau Claire building is erected. And they probably will be.

New York Sunday: The president is striving manfully against the death intended for him by a believer, in such wild reckless criminal lies as Altgeld and his fellows love to utter. Such men and all the other American slanderers of the United States, whether they are the simpering clergymen and college professors, or the cheap and nasty politicians, or the yellow Yahoos of the press are morally accomplices of Czolgosz. They have egged him on. They are filling nobody knows how many other cradled brains with plans of murder. And they keep at it, even after William McKinley, their victim, has been struck down. They hold up the hands of Czolgosz.

K. of P. Notice: Brother M. V. Malmberg of Kansas City will give a lecture tomorrow evening at Castle hall on the history of "Dionysius or the Test of Friendship." All members are requested to be present.

A large palm was taken from the porch at the home of the Hon. Hamilton Richardson last night by some person who had evidently cast envious eyes for some time. Depredations of this sort have become frequent in the Second ward and the offenders will be dealt with if apprehended.

Gift from Mrs. Hearst: San Francisco, Sept. 12.—Mrs. Phoebe Hearst has agreed to pay all the expenses of a department of anthropology at the University of California, which will be devoted especially to the study of Indians of the Pacific coast. The cost will be about $50,000 a year.

On account of the Walworth county fair, Sept. 16th to 20th, the C. M. & St. P. will run a special train to Elkhorn and return on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 18th, 19th and 20th, leaving Janesville at 8:15 a. m.; returning, leave Elkhorn at 7 p. m. This train will run via the new line. Fare for the round trip, $1.15.

JEWISH NEW YEAR FRIDAY NIGHT; CELEBRATION MARKS 5,662 YEARS

Other Days of Festivity Follow Shortly—Days Will Be Generally Observed by All Hebrews.

Beginning Friday night of this week the Hebrew residents of Janesville and all others in all parts of the world will celebrate the Jewish New Year. Although the celebration proper takes place Saturday and Sunday almost uninterruptedly, the services really begin Friday night when the first gathering for the occasion is held in every church of this denomination in the world.

According to the method of reckoning still in vogue by the Jews, this celebration will mark the beginning of the 5,662d year. It is the day of sounding of the Corone.

The day is signified by the word "Rosh Hashanah." The services will be nearly uniform in all the churches except that the larger ones will celebrate more elaborately.

The celebration of the New Year among the Hebrews is accompanied by a good deal of merriment, which makes it not dissimilar to the celebration of the Christian church. However the greater part of the celebration consists of services at the temples. The principal service takes place Sunday forenoon.

The celebration of New Year is followed by the observation of the Day of Atonement which takes place Sept. 23. The services begin Sunday night, Sept. 22, and continue until Tuesday after that, and consist of prayer meetings.

Tabernacle Days are Sept. 28 and 29, and are the great holidays of the church. The two days named are spent in devotional exercises for the greater part, while almost an entire week is given over to festivities.

The conclusion of the ceremonies and festivities comes Oct. 6. After this the Jewish church has no holidays of special importance until the celebration of Easter.

ELKHORN GRANTS HURD A FRANCHISE

Delavan is the Next Place Where Action Will Be Taken On the Application of Janesville Men.

Thomas S. Nolan of this city, was in Elkhorn on Monday and Tuesday last looking after the interests of the proposed electric line from this city to Geneva City by the way of Delavan and Elkhorn.

The council at Elkhorn granted Mr. Hurd's application for a franchise to build and maintain a road in that city. The original franchise which was referred to a committee who drafted a franchise of their own. This was not acceptable to the railway people and they informed the committee that they could not accept it.

Last Monday night Mr. Nolan met the committee and they framed a franchise which was acceptable to all parties and is practically the same as the franchise granted the Beloit Delavan Lake and Janesville line in this city.

They now have franchises from Geneva City and Elkhorn and will get a franchise from Delavan at the meeting of the council next Tuesday evening. The only objection to the granting of a franchise in the city of Delavan is raised by the people residing on Walworth avenue the principal street of the city who do not want the road run down that street. Not all the residents of the street are against the road and many of them favor having the road on the street. The railway company are anxious to have the line on Walworth avenue for the reason that it would take the line past the principal hotels and business blocks of the city.

This line will be of great value to Delavan at all times of the year and especially during the summer season when the assembly is in session and the campers are at their cottages about the lake. Delavan lake is a beautiful spot and is fast becoming one of the principal summer resorts in this part of the state. With an electric line running direct from this city to Delavan, and the lake so that the people could come and go when they pleased to Janesville the attendance from here would be more than doubled. The attendance from this city at the assembly during the past summer was greatly in excess of that of any other place. It is hoped that the council will grant the franchise at their meeting on Tuesday evening.

The promoters of the road have an engineer and assistants all ready to make a survey of the route, as soon as the question at Delavan is settled.

LATE FOREIGN NEWS

Mine Disaster in Wales. Caerphilly, Wales, Sept. 12.—A serious explosion took place last evening at the Llanbradach colliery, near here. ## SELECTING A COMMANDER

Grand Army Men Hold Caucuses in Cleveland.

RESULTS SHOW SURPRISES.

Judge Eli Torrance of Minneapolis Was a Fighting Chance to Be Elected—Contest Will Be the Most Bitter in the History of the G. A. R.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 12.—Caucuses on the selection of a commander in chief of the Grand Army were held last night. They were based on the proposition of General Sickles that the candidates shown by the caucuses to be unable to win on the first ballot shall withdraw. As the result of the caucuses became known there were surprises. Judge Eli Torrance of Minneapolis, who had been looked upon as a possibility only in the event of a Sickles-Stewart deadlock, seems to have about 25 per cent of the 600 delegates pledged. New York's caucus, which was expected to give the full vote of that state to Sickles, gave him but 28 and Stewart 19. Iowa came out solid for Torrance. The contest will be the most bitter in the history of the G. A. R. Sickles and Stewart are bitter against each other, and either would prefer to see Torrance win if he cannot himself. The midnight estimate of strength gives Sickles 225 votes, Stewart 225 and Torrance 150. The patriotic outburst of the day was duplicated this afternoon, when a mass meeting was held in praise and thanksgiving for the prospective recovery of President McKinley. Senator Hanna, Governor Nash of Ohio, Mayor Johnson of Cleveland, General Ranssieur of the Grand Army, Judge William R. Day of Canton, Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, Charles Grosvenor and Rev. Dr. Manchester, the President's pastor, addressed the meeting.

LIBRARY PLANS ARE PROGRESSING

Architect Jennings Hard at Work Reducing the Drawings—One or Two Story Not Yet Settled.

Although to those on the outside it would appear that arrangements for the new library building are at a standstill, work is being done, the results of which will be manifest in the completed building. Architect Jennings is at work, trying to remodel the plans which were first submitted by him so that they will come within the appropriation. At the last meeting of the library board, the architect had not succeeded in cutting down the plans sufficiently and the board decided to give him a reasonable length of time to work on the old plans before undertaking any new ones. This work will probably be completed within a week or two.

While the board is still undecided as to whether the wise course will be to build a one-story or two-story building, the members have decided that the building shall be high, imposing looking and architecturally beautiful. If the former plans can be changed so as to come within the appropriation, they will doubtless not feel warranted in considering the ones accepted but the board does not feel warranted in considering plans which call for a much larger expenditure than the appropriation.

Supt. H. C. Buell, who is a recent addition to the membership of the library board, in speaking of the new building, expressed himself as greatly surprised at the amount of time and thoughtful study which the members of the board are giving to the new building. Not only are the members of the building committee interested in studying facts, figures and plans but every member on the board is studying library needs and library buildings carefully. Estimates are being made on the amount of space which the rooms will contain so as to ascertain whether there will be room enough to meet the needs. Supt. Buell says that the public little realizes the carefulness and thoughtfulness with which it is being served by the members of the library board.

It is too late in the season now that nothing will be done toward the erection of the building, beyond possibly putting in the foundation, and as the winter will give plenty of time for the careful consideration of the plans the members of the board deem it wise to make haste slowly and to spend the time at their disposal in studying how to give the people the greatest value for the money to be expended.

LEOPARD MANGLED 2 MEN; ANIMAL SHOT BY A POSSE

Wild Animal That Escaped from Hall's Menagerie, Riddled with Bullets by a Posse of Evansville Citizens Hunting It This Morning--B. P. Hess and W. D. Tullar Badly Torn by the Beast--The News is a Relief.

The leopard which escaped from its cage at Col. G. W. Hall's menagerie was captured today, but it was only after the wild beast had been riddled with bullets and was cold in death. The end of the leopard's life was a tragic one and two men will bear the marks of its teeth and claws to their dying day. Those who were badly injured by the leopard before the animal was killed are B. P. Hess, a farmer whose farm adjoins that of G. W. Hall in the town of Magnolia near Lee's cemetery and not far from Evansville and W. D. Tullar, a carpenter who lives in Evansville. Mr. Hess is badly torn about the shoulder and upper part of the body and Mr. Tullar was bitten in the arm. The animal made its appearance near Lee's creamery this morning and Mr. Hess was the first one to hold an active encounter with the beast. He went out of doors and the beast jumped on him and after tearing his shoulder badly escaped and disappeared. The country was roused immediately and an organized force of men with guns started out to capture the animal. They finally cornered him in a field on the Hess farm and Mr. Tullar was badly injured. Finding that it was impossible to capture the animal alive the men opened fire on him. There were about thirty men in the party and it is impossible to tell who fired first or whose shot killed him. He was literally shot with bullets. The news of his death will be a relief to many people for so long as he remained at large he was a menace to the country.

HORSES ATTACKED BY INFLUENZA; HALF OF THE ANIMALS IN CITY SICK

Cold, Wet Weather Has Greatly Agitated the Disease--Not Confined to Any Particular Class.

Fully one-half of the horses in the city of Janesville have been attacked with influenza which has rendered them unfit for work. The disease has been in existence here in a mild form for about two weeks, but has been greatly aggravated by the cold, wet weather that has prevailed for several days. The first symptoms of the disease is manifested by an increase in the temperature of the animal which amounts to a severe fever, followed by coughing, more or less severe, and in many cases by a sore throat.

The disease is not considered dangerous to the life of the animal providing that proper care is taken. So long as the horse retains his appetite he is able to perform his usual amount of work, but when the appetite is gone there is a grave danger of pneumonia, and the animal must be placed in the stable and subjected to the best of care.

The disease is not confined to any particular class of horses. The high-bred and well-kept race horses at the state fair are not immune, and it may be stated on the authority of a trainer that nearly one-half of the horses in the stables there are suffering to a greater or less extent from the disease.

A local veterinarian said today: "The disease, which is like catarrh in a person, is infectious and has attacked probably half of the horses in the city." He said, "I had a case in a stable a few days ago, and today I found that six other horses in the barn had caught the malady. The epidemic has been a long time coming this way from Milwaukee. Fond du Lac, Oshkosh and the northern part of the state. The rain, standing in wet stalls and exposure lead to the malady. The weather at present is the worst we could have."

TWO BUSINESS MEN BORROW A DOG; TROUBLE ON A LITTLE HUNTING TRIP

Irish Setter Tackles a Skunk and Then Falls in a Ditch and Brakes a Shoulder Blade.

A couple of well-known retail dry goods men are figuring how they will get out of a scrape a borrowed dog got them into and how much it is going to set them back to pay for the dog.

Both of the gentlemen are enthusiastic sports and wanted to see if they could kill a mess of prairie chickens. A friend of theirs in the government service owned a handsome red Irish setter and kindly loaned him to the two sports.

They drove out in the country and striking some likely looking fields hitched their horse and started out to hunt. They had not gone far when the dog came to a point at the edge of a piece of clover. The two hunters walked on with guns in readiness, to kill the chickens as fast as they got up. The dog was very staunch, but was urged on by the hunters. Suddenly he made a bolt and the next instant the air was filled with a perfume that is better a long ways off and the dog and a skunk were engaged in mortal combat. The dog came out winner but was a good specimen to keep away from. This escapade made the hunters down on their luck, but they thought they would try to find some birds even if the dog did smell, so made another start. They had gone but a short distance when the dog attempted to jump a fence and landed in a blind ditch, breaking his shoulder blade. This was the end, the hunter got the dog back to the wagon, brought him home, and took him to a veterinary for treatment.

The next question was to settle for the dog. One of the hunters with a $20 bill in his pocket hunted up the owner of the dog, explained the circumstances to him and asked him what he wanted for the animal. He thought of course $20 would be an outside figure. He nearly fainted when the official told him $75 would make it all right.

The business man thought the matter over for a time and concluded to wait until the dog came from under the doctor's care. He has made a vow that in the future he will never go hunting with a borrowed dog that is liable to kill skunks.

WILL REMODEL PASSENGER DEPOT

Additional Accommodations Will Be Provided by the St. Paul Road—New Depot This Year.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad company are making arrangements to remodel their passenger station and the platforms to accommodate the traveling public. The station will be treated to a coat of paint and the interior remodelled to give more room. The section between the gents' waiting room and the part on the west now used for a sort of storage room, will be removed, making the room larger and giving them a place for their lunch counter, which now occupies the space between the ticket offices and the north wall. This will increase the waiting rooms very materially in size and will leave a free passage between the two rooms.

The platforms on the west end of the station will be extended and a passenger shed built to protect the passengers in stormy weather.

The congested condition of the station during the arrival and departure of trains has made a move absolutely necessary. It would be impossible for them to build a new station this fall even an agreement was reached between them and the council regarding the partial closing of High street.

The company regrets having to make these changes but as they were unable to make arrangements to build their new station at High street this season, they are forced to make some improvements for the benefit of their patrons.

The material for the change is already on the way and the carpenters and masons will be here on Monday to begin their work.

It is hoped that the company will

THIRTY-EIGHT FROM JANESVILLE REGISTER AT THE PAN-AMERICAN

William W. Watt Writes of the Sights—Electrical Display the Greatest Ever Known to the World—Midway Attractions Are Numerous.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Well repaid, is every visitor to the Pan-American exposition now being held in the city of Buffalo. If for no other reason than to view the night electrical display one should see this great fair. Although the buildings and the area or lands are not as large as that involved in the World's fair, held at Chicago, the Pan-American Exposition has several features that surpass all former enterprises.

In the elaborate and beautiful building effects 300,000 lamps are used, making the grandest electrical exposition ever known to man. The electric power is transmitted from Niagara Falls, a distance of thirty miles. An electric tower 391 feet high is the main object of interest and at night is one mass of fire from top to bottom forming a sight that can be seen for fifty miles about.

In the splendor of its hydraulic and fountain effects the great exposition also surpasses. The entire grounds cover a space of 350 acres, located at the edge of the residence district of Buffalo and within twenty minutes' ride from the business center.

The grounds are easily reached by steam or electric cars and the fare is five cents. Numerous entrances are on all sides, thus giving the visitor but little chance to get crowded. When once within the general lay of the numerous buildings at once impress you of being on a sameness with the World's Fair at Chicago.

The plaster material used is the same but in the richness of its color the management has carried out a novel and excellent idea. The exquisite horticultural and floral embellishments at once impress you. In original statuary work one has here before him over 125 large groups of American sculpture.

As I entered the grounds from the Midway entrance I thought of no better time than then to see this strange part of the big show. In company with J. G. DeLong of Chicago and a half dozen St. Paul and Minneapolis boys we started first at the Indian village and went the entire limit till we found ourselves seated before eighteen dancing girls in the Moorish palace. The midway is fully the equal of the one held in connection with the World's Fair in Chicago. Several good shows are to be seen as well as several that are dear at any price.

But as a whole the Midway is replete with interesting and instructive features. Prof. Bostock's trained animal show is well worth a visit. As is also the Johnstown Flood, A Trip to the Moon, Dreamland, the Philippine village and the Infant Incubators. Other features are the Streets of Cairo, Darkest Africa, the House Upside Down, and Alt Nurnberg.

If one intended to thoroughly see the Midway it would take at least a week provided you remained at every theater. Dancing girls are numerous and are brought out in front of the many entrances about every ten minutes for the purpose of attracting a crowd.

But the people are not easily duped and the hard lung barkers have to work hard for their money. Unlike the Midway at Chicago the one at Buffalo is easy to travel as it winds itself around two sides of the Exposition and is easily reached from all parts of the grounds. At all times of the day and evening crowds linger on the Midway apparently enjoying every minute of the time. From the Midway one can easily reach the main buildings.

Just at present the Temple of Music structure is visited by thousands of people daily. All anxious to see where the president stood when shot down. Blood stains in the pine floor boards are plainly visible. In many places on and near the spot relic hunters have cut strips of wood from the floor. But a guard now watches the spot and after viewing it you are told to move on.

On top of the Temple of Music the United States signal corps have established a station and from the private residence of Mr. Milburn, where President McKinley is being cared for the news of his condition is signaled by waving flags every five minutes. The distance is fully a mile and the reports as soon as received are bulletined all over the Exposition grounds where they are cheered by thousands. Of special interest is the United States government buildings. The exhibits were shown involve an outlay of several thousand dollars.

The United States government appropriations was $500,000, which includes daily exhibits at a life saving station, post office in adly use-light, house in operation, naval and ordinance displays, fish in aquariums, weather signal station in operation, displays by the mint, as well as special exhibits from the Hawaiian and Philippine Islands, Guam, Porto Rico and Cuba.

Other buildings of importance are those devoted to machinery, transportation, electricity, liberal arts and agriculture. The numerous state buildings are also to be seen as at the World's Fair. The Wisconsin state building is a plain but beautiful structure and is generally visited by all Janesville people. In one corner of the spacious reception room is the register that up to the noon hour of September 9 contained the names of thirty-eight Bower City residents who have visited the Exposition.

All the leading Wisconsin daily papers are received and placed on file. A spacious porch fronts the building and here are to be found numerous easy chairs. The Wisconsin building is faced by the Illinois and Ohio state buildings. Throughout the exposition grounds waterways have been laid out and are constantly traveled by electric launches and gondolas.

Throughout the grounds have been erected costly band stands where are daily held concerts by the leading bands of the country including the famous Sousa. Another building worthy of mention is the Stadium where 12,000 people can be easily seated.

In the Stadium sports of all kinds take place competed in by the best athletes of the world. This month a grand fashionable horse show will take place there and all Buffalo is now making preparations to make the event one that will outshine any horse show ever held in New York or Chicago.

To see all of the exposition thoroughly one should take at least two weeks. No pen can do justice to the Pan-American and to go into details would consume pages of space. The falls of Niagara thirty miles away attract the average stranger. The round trip can be made in electric cars for fifty cents.

To properly view the falls from all sides involves another expense of about $1.50. The city of Buffalo is all ablaze with life and visitors are now daily arriving to the number of 50,000. Buffalo has a population of 400,000, twenty-six railroad lines, 225 miles of asphalt streets and many ten and twelve story buildings.

The Milburn residence, where President McKinley now lies in danger is a beautiful structure in the aristocratic portion. For three blocks around the police are on guard and no teams or strangers are allowed to travel. Only people who actually reside in the neighborhood are given passes and then only to go direct to their homes.

I secured a press pass and was admitted to the Milburn grounds but not to the house. On a vacant lot opposite the residence a press tent has been erected and a telegraph station established. From the Milburn residence bulletins are issued every few minutes. These bulletins are hurriedly but quietly taken to the press tent and from there flashed to all parts of the civilized world.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

Kaiser Grets Czar. Dantzig, Sept. 12.—Kaiser Wilhelm and Czar Nicholas had a rendezvous today in midsea near this harbor. At 3:30 p. m. the Imperial Russian yacht Standart with the czar on board was sighted off the port. The vessel was escorted by the German Imperial yacht Hohenzollern with emperor William on board. The Hohenzollern was accompanied by the German cruisers Stelpaner and Niobe and the Standart by the Russian cruiser Varlag. Kaiser Wilhelm received the czar on board the Hohenzollern.

Pain May Send Warships. London, Sept. 12.—A dispatch to the Times from Madrid says: The time fixed by Spain for the release of the Spanish boy and girl captured by Moorish tribes expires Sept. 12. It is stated that the sultan wishes an extension because the tribes are in rebellion, which the government is not disposed to grant, demanding, besides their release, compensation in cash and the punishment of the tribes. It is believed that other powers support Spain's claims and that, failing satisfaction, Spanish war vessels will be sent to Moorish waters.

Nobility Recommends Nervine.

The above portrait is that of Countess Mogelstod, of Chicago, Ill., whose gratitude for the benefit received from the use of Dr. Miles' Nervine prompted her to make this statement:

"It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to the very excellent merits of Dr. Miles' Nervine. Although I am past 80 years of age I find it soothes the tired brain, quiets the irritated nerves and insures restful sleep. I never feel contented without a bottle of it in the house. Gratefully yours, CHRISTIANA MARIA, Countess Mogelstod."

Dr. Miles' Nervine is a nerve tonic and strength-builder that starts right in restoring health immediately. Sold by all Druggists. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Willis Barry and his steamer Hartford defied the whole Canadian government here last night, and is now sailing up Lake Erie, in spite of the revenue cutter Petrel, which had orders to stop him. The Canadian government wants $500 from Captain Barry for damage done to a railroad bridge by the Hartford as it came up the Welland canal yesterday.

Severe Measure for Toppers. St. Petersburg, Sept. 12.—Privy Councillor Sipyagin, Russian minister of the interior has put in force severe repressive measures against drunkenness. The police throughout the empire are directed to be more vigilant in arresting habitual and other drunkards, and these they are instructed to register the same as if they were candidates for the rogues' gallery.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you Eat

Dyspeptics cannot regain health and strength by living upon half rations. They must eat plenty of good food and digest it. To enable them to do this they should use something that will help the stomach do its work. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is such a preparation. It digests what you eat and supplies the substances needed to build up the worn out digestive organs.

Prof. J. Iverson, of Lonsaconing, Md., says: "For thirteen years I suffered agony from dyspepsia and neuralgia of the stomach. I tried almost everything and doctors drugged me nearly to death with morphine, but temporary relief was all I could obtain till I was advised to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. The first dose gave me relief. I bought my first bottle in March, 1900, and I have not had a single pain since. It has completely cured me. I cannot endorse it too highly."

It can't help but do you good

Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The $1. bottle contains 2 1/2 times the 50c. size.

ASSASSIN ON THE RACK

The Police Ply Czoigosz With Many Questions.

HIS WHISKERS ARE GROWING

Wants Shave, But Guards Fear to Give Him a Razor—McKinley's Assistant Welcomes Calls Out of Dungeon—Legal Status of Case.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Czoigosz is subject to frequent interviews by police, detectives and secret service agents. He is visited several times each day and led into conversations concerning his crime and his associations. He always talks volubly. He appears to be glad to have the grim monotony of his life in the dungeon at police headquarters broken by the visits of the policemen. He is becoming nervous and restless under restraint and is not eating as heartily as he did when first arrested. Czoigosz ate half a slice of bread out of a rather bounteous and appetizing meal that was set before him at noon. His beard is beginning to sprout and its appearance has completely changed his physical aspect. He is no longer the whey-faced, boyish looking man who shot the President in the temple of music. The beard is light brown in color and grows down from the points of his protruding cheek bones. He does not like it and has asked repeatedly to be permitted to shave himself or be shaved by a barber. This request the police have denied, for they are afraid to trust the prisoner with a razor and thus place him in a position where he might make an attempt upon his life. They will permit the whiskers to grow until he is arraigned.

Trial Awaits McKinley's Recovery.

The time of arraignment has not been seriously considered. It will not occur under any circumstances until President McKinley is wholly out of danger of a relapse and has given evidence of such physical restoration that he can travel to Washington. District Attorney Penney says there is no reason to hurry the anarchist's arraignment in court. After Czoigosz is arraigned no time will be lost in bringing him to trial, and a conviction will be speedily secured. Spectacular effects will be carefully avoided. The shooting is to be investigated by an extraordinary grand jury that Governor Odell has ordered and the work of that body, on account of the scope that will be allowed it, is likely to occupy a great deal of time. The jury will attempt to ascertain whether or not Czoigosz had confederates in his crime.

Conspiracy Only a Misdemeanor. As to Czoigosz, there is a general agreement that his crime is for the New York and not for the national authorities to deal with. A question has arisen as to the nature of the prosecution and the desire is to adopt the course which will give the most serious phases and will impose the severest punishment. If the prosecution were for conspiracy with Emma Goldman or any other person, the prosecution would be confronted by the fact that conspiracy is only a misdemeanor under the New York laws, and its punishment is not commensurate with the crime in this case. On the other hand, assault with intent to kill is a felony, and as such is much more serious than conspiracy. Moreover, a prosecution for the actual assault with intent to kill might also incidentally involve the question of conspiracy in which other parties participated. For instance, the physical presence of Emma Goldman at the commission of the crime is not essential to make her a party to it. If there is other evidence that she actually brought about the crime. The vital point is to secure sufficient evidence to establish that the acts of an absent party directly led up to and brought about the crime.

Prison for Life Is Grigs' Plan.

New York, Sept. 12.—Former Attorney General Grigs said today in Paterson, N. J., that the talk of amending the constitution to deal with the situation which arises out of the shooting of President McKinley is unnecessary. "A law should be passed," he said, "making it an offense punishable by imprisonment for life to be a member of any organization that teaches the murder of public officials. It should be made a capital offense to attempt the life of the chief executive and high officers of the government, whether it succeeds or not."

Kropotkin Scores Assassin.

London, Sept. 12.—Prince Kropotkin, the Russian revolutionist, in an interview today on the attempted assassination of President McKinley, characterized Czoigosz as a "common murderer," and said he should be dealt with as such.

Fall Carnival at Omaha.

Omaha, Sept. 12.—The fall carnival of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben has been opened to continue for ten days. The features of the carnival include a street fair, a parade of civic and international societies, with appropriate floats on Wednesday of next week and an electrical parade the following evening.

Four Killed by a Train.

Peru, Ind., Sept. 12.—Nathan Fouts, his sister, Mrs. Frank Niccum, her husband, and their 18 months' old daughter were killed by a Lake Erie and Western passenger train at a crossing six and one-half miles north of Peru. The four were in a spring wagon, returning from a funeral.
